DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What does this story tell us about Jesus?
2. Have you ever known someone who had a very extensive eye surgery that saved their eyesight? What was their response after that surgery and being able to see again? Try to imagine what it would have been like to see after NEVER seeing before, what do you think it would be like?
3. At first glance it seems as if Jesus is simply healing a man born blind, but in your words, what are the bottom-line issues in this sign that Jesus performs?
4. Jesus covered the man's eyes with mud, then told him to go wash in the Pool of Siloam. This man only knew Jesus by name and his voice, so, why do you think Jesus commanded him to walk to the Pool of Siloam to wash his eyes off?
5. This man's parents were afraid to take a stand. Why? Let's get personal, have you ever been in a position where you were afraid of the stand that you were going to have to take?
6. Consider the man's response to repeated questioning. What can we learn from him about how to respond to unbelievers?
7. The blind man shared his story even though the people around him had a hard time believing it was true. Do you find it difficult to tell people about Jesus' work? Can you think of a story about Jesus that other people need to hear?
